

She's Got Legs

Make a statement this winter with fun, flirty and fashionable legwear.

The winter chill may have arrived, but that doesn't mean it's time to send your legs into hiding. Instead of the same old jean routine, embrace the opportunity to have some fun with legwear and a great pair of shoes. Take a cue from these styles—crazy patterns, sexy fishnets and cool classics—and showcase those gams. Try pairing bright patterned tights with a solid sweater dress for a fresh take on a classic. Or dress up black shorts with black textured tights. With everyone else all bundled up, you'll be sure to turn heads. Hey, it's about time our legs got the year-round attention they deserve.
